

June 30 – July 1, 2005 Lobero Room, University Center, UC Santa Barbara

Program for Thursday, June 30: 9:00 a.m. – 5:15 p.m.

Introduction - Donald Janelle, UCSB (9:00)

Session I -- Regionalization from Population Surveys (9:15 – 10:30)

- Population and health indicators from national surveys in India
Rajib Acharya, Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health
- The impact of shifting demographics on environmental variables, Utah 1990-2000
Yan Guo, Utah State University
- Comparing ethnic residential integration in metropolitan areas of Canada and the United States
Ann Kim, Brown University
- Linking place and racial identification in the U.S. Census
Julie Dowling, UC Santa Barbara / Univ. of Illinois Urbana-Champaign,
- Modeling intra-regional variation in urban quality of life in South East Queensland
Roderick McCrea, University of Queensland

Session II – Population, Environment, and Epidemiology (10:45 – 12:00)

- Ecological characteristics of the spatial distribution of malaria vectors in the Peruvian Amazon
William Pan, Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health
- Land use, population and settler income in the Ecuadorian Amazon
Alisson Barbieri, Carolina Population Center, UNC-Chapel Hill
- Dengue fever on the Texas-Mexico border: using interdisciplinary science to improve public health
Joan Brunkard, University of California, Santa Cruz
- HIV-1 in Nairobi, Kenya
Michael Chung, University of Washington
- Population associations with STI and HIV among inner city adolescents and young adults
Jacky Jennings, Johns Hopkins University Bloomberg School of Public Health

Session III – Health Risk Assessment and Neighborhood Spatial Effects (1:30 – 2:45)

- Health effects of chemical exposures using residential histories
Anneclaire De Roos, University of Washington and Fred Hutchinson Cancer Research Center
- Using probabilistic linkage and GIS to describe burn injury risk in Utah
Linda Edelman, University of Utah College of Nursing
- Health impact assessments linking physical and social environments with physical activity levels
Riti Shimkhada, University of California, Los Angeles
- Neighborhood context and adolescent substance use
Karen Snedker, University of Washington School of Nursing

continued...

Sponsored by the Center for Spatially Integrated Social Science with funding from the NICHD

- Arizona tobacco education and prevention program evaluation unit, measuring spatial effects on outcomes of tobacco prevention programs - Susan Voelker, University of Arizona

Session IV – Spatial Inequality and Poverty (3:00 – 4:00)

- Structural and spatial clustering: creativity, diversity and urban development in Chicago neighborhoods
Corina Graif, Harvard University
- Space and race: understanding intra-metropolitan employment differential among minority and immigrant youth in Los Angeles - Cathy Yang Liu, University of Southern California
- Spatial arrangements of poverty and precarious employment in Guadalajara, Mexico
Landy Sanchez, University of Wisconsin-Madison
- Assessing the impact of public expenditure on social exclusion: A spatially sensitive approach
Sonia Martin, Australian Institute for Social Research, University of Adelaide

Session V – Spatial Dimensions of Public Policy in Population Research (4:15– 5:30)

- Health geography and public health issues - Lisel O'Dwyer, Flinders University
- Geographic dimensions of college student protest - Bryan Rookey, Washington State University
- Housing and neighborhood choice of poor in-migrant households to U.S. metropolitan areas
Kimiko Shiki, University of California, Los Angeles
- Business relocation and job creation and destruction in California - Brandon Wall, Public Policy Institute of California
- Spatial perspectives on nursing shortage - Kohei Enami, University of Southern California

Program for Friday, July 1: 9:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

- 9:00 Introduction and Introductions - Michael Goodchild
- 9:15 Evolving Methods to Involve Neighborhood Context in Alcohol Availability Research
Richard Scribner, Louisiana State U., School of Public Health
- 10:00 Panel / Discussion - Workshop participants
- 10:30 Break
- 10:45 Defining Neighborhoods, Collecting Data, and Studying Neighborhood Effects in Los Angeles
Narayan Sastry, RAND / LAFANS
- 11:30 Panel / Discussion - Workshop participants
- 12:00 Lunch (on your own)
- 2:00 Putting Place and Space into Demographic Analysis
John Weeks, International Population Center, San Diego State University
- 2:45 Panel / Discussion - Workshop participants
- 3:15 Some Closing Thought on the Workshop - Don Janelle
- 3:30 Awards Ceremony for Best Participant Presentations and Certificates of Completion from CSISS and ESRI
- 4:00 Close of conference and workshop